Looking for a soft spot to land on is the Tivy quarterback as Sam Ruiz (22) and Dan Cervenka (87) come up with all intents in making it a “crash landing”.

GAINING VICTORY BELL – Neill Coble (66) does his part for the Rebs in their 14-0 upset of the then high-ranked McCallum Knights as Jimmy Rogers (10) adds his encouragement. Coble intercepted a Northside pass while off-balance and tumbled to the ground. A McCallum tackle (60) was moving in to stop him.

McCallum's Jerry Squyres (white 22) couldn't quite reach this pass from Bob Young in the first half of Friday night's McCallum-Travis game. Travis'

Sam Ruiz (red 22) is covering on the play. Travis won the game, 14-0, in a startling upset.

Touchdown number two is scored here by Travis' fullback Kenneth Lind as he broke through the middle of the line for eight yards in the second quarter against Corpus Christi Carroll. Giving him some running room with good protection are Bo Price (50) and John Shaw (42). Travis went on to score a 33-0 victory in its season finale.

Protection is where you find it in weather like this. Cheerleaders of William B. Travis High School decided their megaphones were more useful for rain and wind protection than for yelling at the Rebel-Carroll game which was played in the coldest, wettest, worst weather of the year. McCallum and Stephen F. Austin face the same sort of muddy misery Friday night as they wind up their football seasons in House Park. Only happy note: Travis won, 33-0.

REBELS TRUE

Hail to thee oh Tra-vis High, Red and Grey our ban-ners fly. Built of spir-it that we love, Al-ma Ma-ter high a-bove.
Hon-or to thy name we'll sing. Songs of praise for-ever sing.
Faith-ful al-ways un-to you we're Reb-els. Reb-els true.
